OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE BIOLOGY UNIT OF ATA

DECEMBER 2015

VOLUME 64, NUMBER 4

Why did you yell “Fire!” when you fell into the chocolate?

(Because no one would save me if I yelled “Chocolate!”)

The Biology Unit, founded in 1951, is a study unit of the American Topical Association dedicated to the international cooperative study of biological postage stamps and related material.

Back copies of Biophilately are available from the Librarian. Copies of separate articles are available at a charge six cents per page. Please contact the individual associate editors if you have queries about the content of their columns.

Send membership enquiries and change of address notices to the Secretary, Chris Dahle, (319) 364-4999. See the following page for dues rates.

The purpose of this journal is to provide members with informative articles dealing with biological topics and to publish listings covering the new zoological and botanical issues of the world, identified and classified to the best of our ability.

Please send letters, comments on the journal, articles, or new material to the Editor (data above). The Publisher will handle requests for issues from the current year. Contact the Librarian (address above) for copies of all other issues. NOTE: Please provide a self-addressed envelope with the necessary return postage (or International Reply Coupons, if available) for all enquiries requiring an answer.
